Beijing FICE Registration Package #BJLLC03
(Import and Export Business)

This package is applicable to the case where a Hong Kong registered company applies to registration a limited liability company in Beijing, China for the purpose of carrying out general trading business, including import and export, wholesales and distribution, in Beijing, China.

It is noted the import or export of certain products may require special approval. In that case, our fees will be adjusted accordingly.

When a foreign investor (both corporations and individuals) intend to carry out trading business, including wholesale/distribution and importing and exporting, he needs to set up a trading company, in the form of limited liability company (or company limited by shares where a minimum of two shareholders is required) with the scope of business stated in the Business Licence.

This package covers all necessary registration procedures required to bring in such a company into existence and ready for business. There are several other procedures needed to be performed, such as capital verification, application for Normal Taxpayer Qualification and Foreign Trade Operator Registration, are specifically excluded from the package described below as those procedures are considered to be on-going maintenance compliance.

In addition, the package stated below is for company with a scope of business including only wholesale/distribution and importing and exporting of general commodities. Trading of certain products may require extra licence and therefore extra fees could be expected.

1. Beijing FICE Registration Costs

2. Procedures for Establishing a FICE in China

2.1 Preliminary

(1) Lease of Office Space

Firstly, the investor will have to enter into a tenancy agreement in relation to the office space to be used by the FICE for a term of not less than 12 months. The office must be located in a commercial building.

(2) Legalisation of Identity Documents of the Shareholder

The investor is also required to arrange to have the identity documents of the shareholder legalised by the Chinese Embassy in the country where the shareholder is registered/resided. If the shareholder/member is a corporation, the identity documents required to be legalised are its incorporation documents. In the case the shareholder is an individual, the identity document required to be legalised is his/her passport (for foreigner) or identity card and home return permit (for Hong Kong, Macau and Taiwan resident).

(3) Banker's Reference Letter

Also, the investor needs to arrange with its banker to issue a banker's reference letter. The banker's reference letter is one of the documents to be submitted for the purpose of registration.

(4) Other Documentation

The investor at the same time needs to prepare other documents, such as photocopies of passport/identity card/Home Returning Card of the directors, supervisor, legal Representative and General Manager.

2.2 Application for Registration of the FICE

(1) Name Search and Reservation

The registration process of a FICE starts with name availability search. We suggest that you create 3 to 4 names (in Chinese) in case that the preferred one is gone. We will then perform a name availability search with the local industry and commerce administration bureau and confirm with you their availability.

Should the search indicates that the preferred company names are available for registration, we then apply for and on your behalf for the reservation of the preferred name with the local Administrative Bureau for Industry and Commerce ("AIC"). This is called "Name Pre-registration" in China.

The name of the FICE should follow the format:

Administration Region + Business Name + Industry + Limited or Business Name + Industry + (Administration Region) + Limited

For example: ABC Trading (Beijing) Limited

(2) Examination and Approval

As for the timing of approval, Approval Authorities are required to make its decision within 45 days from receipt of all the documentation.

(3) Registration for Business License

Within 30 days after obtaining the approval certificate, the foreign investor will need to register and apply for a business licence for the FICE from the local AIC. As part of this step, the foreign investor will need to submit similar documentation to the approval documentation for AIC filing purposes. This is purely a procedural step and the local AIC must issue the Business License within 30 days, but in our experience AIC will usually issue the Business Licence within 5-10 days after receiving all the required documentation.

Once the business license is issued, the FICE is deemed to be a legal person duly organised and existing under PRC law and will have full operational rights to operate a business in China within the scope of its Business Licence.

(4) Registrations with other Government Authorities

Once after the FICE is officially registered, it also needs to apply for various certificates from or apply for registration with the several other government departments.

3. Estimated Time Frame

It is estimated that the whole registration process would take around 6-7 months. The table below shows the estimated time frame for each of the steps for the registration process.
